REMARKS

Interview Summary

In a telephone interview with the undersigned on May 30, 2007, the Examiner indicated that subject to the cancellation of claims 38-80 as added in Amendment G, the Examiner would allow the present application. The Examiner further noted that claims 38-80 would be subject to a restriction.

On May 31, 2007, the undersigned contacted the Examiner and agreed to cancel claims 38-77. The undersigned noted that claims 78-80 were, in fact, dependent upon independent claims 1, 6, and 80, respectively, which are members of the groups of claims the Examiner indicated would otherwise be allowable.

Through the present amendment, claims 38-77 have been cancelled. As such, the present application (according to the Examiner's prior representations) should now be in condition for allowance.

CONCLUSION

The Applicants have cancelled (without prejudice) claims 38-77. As previously indicated by the Examiner, all remaining claims are in condition for allowance.

The Applicants expressly reserve the right to pursue claims 38-77 (and any other claim previously amended and/or cancelled) in a continuation and/or divisional application.

The Examiner is invited to contact the undersigned with any further questions concerning the present application.

Respectfully submitted,
Richard Lang et al.
